

GIRLS INDIVIDUAL GOLF LEAGUE REGULATIONS

- 1. You MUST be under the age of 19 on 9-1-09 in order to qualify to play.
- 2. You MUST be able to shoot 120 or less for 18 holes and/or under 70 for 9 holes.
- 3. You do NOT have to be a member of a BDGA club in order to play.
- 4. You MUST have a basic understanding of the rules and etiquette of the game along with the Standards of Play and Code of Behavior of the BDGA.
- 5. You have a choice of playing in any or all of the four events during the month of July. The top players at the end of the season for both 9-hole and 18-hole divisions will be invited to play in the BDGA Championships on August 14 at Crag Burn.
- 6. All play will be from the host club's designated forward tees and play will be in threesomes established by the BDGA at designated tee times as published on the BDGA website (www.buffdga.org)
- 7. All play will be stroke play with the field divided into 18-hole and 9-hole divisions.
- 8. Although you may still play after the boys' Friday League scheduled events of your club, it is hoped that this new girls-only league will become the preferred competition for girls. Of course, girls will continue to be eligible for their club's Friday League team at the Junior and Sub-Junior levels and may play in both this and the girls' league.
